DECORATIVE ART

EMBROIDERY CLASSES

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Lucy Barter

Embroidery is the art of decorating fabric with a needle and thread or yarn. Its age of origin is unknown, but examples survive from Ancient Egypt, Iron Age Northern Europe, and Zhou Dynasty China. Using kits designed by the instructor, a graduate of the Royal School of Needlework at Hampton Court, students create individual pieces using a different technique in each workshop. These classes require no experience but can also be good for an accomplished embroiderer to brush up on techniques. Fees include all classroom materials and embroidery kits.

GOLD AND SILK EMBROIDERY

Dates: Friday, July 15 and Saturday, July 16

Learn how to work long and short stitches to fill areas of shiny silk shapes of color with an Arts and Crafts inspired design. Gold couching in passing thread, chipwork, and the use of Pearl purl are worked to outline and create height and detention over felt padding. The silk is also used for some of the couching to balance the color within the design. The basics of both gold and silk are covered in this class, and it is fun to combine the two.

Fee: $185 members; $225 non-members

CANVAS WORK

Date: Friday, August 5

Canvas work or Needlepoint is a technique using different stitches to cover the surface of a stiff canvas ground. In this class different stitches are used to create dimension, texture, and perspective. Lucy will also demonstrate how to add three-dimensional detail to the design.

Fee: $120 members; $145 non-members

GOLDWORK BUTTERFLY

Date: Saturday, August 6

The basics of goldwork embroidery are covered in this class, felt padding, Japanese couching, bright check chipwork, and Pearl purl outlining create a beautiful butterfly. Tips on how to use and store the gold thread will also be given during class.

Fee: $120 members; $145 non-members

MASTER CLASS

Date: Friday, August 19

This master class covers tips on designing for embroidery, deciding on techniques, choosing materials, creating a stitch plan, types of finishing, and of course the chance to do some stitching!

Fee: $120 members; $145 non-members

MOSAIC WORKSHOP

Dates: Saturday, July 30 and Sunday, July 31

Time: 10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Instructor: Shirley Smith

For thousands of years mosaics have been called the eternal art form, adorning ancient temples, churches, fountains, public squares, and homes of royalty. In this fun class you will learn how to create a beautiful bird bath or garden pot for your garden, or as a gift, through insightful demonstrations, hands-on instruction and guidance. This 2-day class will cover the basics of breaking, cutting, and applying glass tile to form designs on your base (substrate). Bring your imagination and your desire to learn mosaics.

Fee: $200 members; $240 non-members. Fee includes all classroom materials and tools. All levels of experience welcome.

REBBIION FLOWER BOUQUETS

Dates: Friday, September 16

and Saturday, September 17

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Candace Kling

Learn how to make a bounty of beautiful ribbon flower blooms and a mass of companion leaves, developing speed and accuracy over the hours, and varying the results with stitch size and cutting proportions. On day two we'll discuss crinoline backing and the essential use of stems to create exciting compositions. Then we'll take our flowers, leaves, and stems and "put them all together".

Voila, a bouquet of ribbon flowers!

Fee: $150 members; $180 non-members. Basic sewing skills needed.

ARTIST ACCESS

Dates: Thursdays, June 23, July 14, August 25, September 29, and October 20

Time: 3:30 pm - 6:30 pm

Filoli extends the opportunity for artists and photographers to have access to the Gardens after hours. Experience the quiet beauty and stunning vistas of this rare and historical country estate. Artists may work in the medium of their choice and must provide all their own materials and storage containers for the removal of all used water and non-toxic cleaning fluids.

Fee per day: $20 members, $30 non-members.

LECTURES AND DEMONSTRATIONS

Centennial Lecture Series Continues...

THIS GRAND OLE HOUSE — BLUEPRINTS TO PRESERVATION

Date: Thursday, September 29

Guided Tours: 3:30 pm or 4:30 pm

Take a one-hour guided tour after-hours and explore the House. See first-hand where projects have taken place, discover points of interest and the history that goes with them. Space is limited; pre-registration is required.

Reception: 4:30 pm – 5:30 pm

Join us in the Visitor and Education Center for appetizers and a glass of wine before the lecture, view the current art exhibit, The Valley of Heart's Delight, stroll the Garden and see the Sculpture Exhibit or visit the House. Please no food or drink in the House. Reservations are included with your lecture registration.

Lecture: 5:30 am – 6:30 pm

Presenters: Greg Mellburg, Ted Cardoza, and Dave Herrington

Construction began in 1915 at the direction of the original owners, Mr. and Mrs. Bourn. This two-part insightful and informative lecture takes you on a journey through time. From architectural design influences and engineering innovations at the turn of the century to the construction methods used, discover how the grand House at Filoli was originally built and later added on to by its second owners, Mr. and Mrs. Roth. Listen to accounts of repairs and projects taken on after Filoli became a National Trust for Historic Preservation Property such as: the post-1989 earthquake retrofitting, what it took to film movies in the House, removal of the Bourn and Bird porches, ceiling replacements, and much more. To complement this lecture, comparisons with other grand peninsula estates will also be explored. There will be a question and answer session immediately following the lecture. Pre-registration is highly recommended; walk-ins will be taken as space permits.

Fees: Reception and Lecture Only: $25 members; $35 non-members. Non-member fee includes same-day admission to Filoli.

*Reception, Lecture, and Guided Tour: $35 members; $45 non-members

The House will remain open for self-guided tours until 5:30 pm; the Garden will remain open until 6:30 pm.

IKEBANA

THE ART OF FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS

Date: Thursday, October 20

Time: 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Presenter: Katsuko Thielke

Ikebana (Japanese flower arranging) is noted for perfect proportions and dramatic use of negative space. Katsuko Thielke is a local, talented ikebana artist and Sogetsu instructor, well known for her mastery of weaving techniques of leaves and grasses. She will inspire us with her artful and creative arrangements. Discover how you can incorporate some of the techniques she will demonstrate into your own designs. Katsuko has written two books; one about Weaving and one about Bamboo. Currently, she is writing two additional books on using lotus leaves and palm fronds in ikebana arrangements. Following her demo there will be a reception, book sale, and signing. Please join us for an enriching afternoon.

Fee: $30 members; $40 non-members. Non-member fee includes same day admission to Filoli.

ART

SUMMER GARDEN BRILLIANCE

Dates: Friday, July 22 and Saturday, July 23

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Guy Magallanes

The summer garden is full of bright, brilliant, big, and bold flowers that are such fun subjects to paint in watercolor. Learn to capture this summer garden brilliance through insightful demonstrations, step-by-step hands-on instruction, and personal guidance.

Fee: $180 members; $215 non-members. Fee includes all materials. This class is perfect for students with little or no experience.

Bumblebee by Guy Magallanes

PLEIN AIR OIL PAINTING IN THE GARDEN

Dates: Friday, July 29 and Saturday, July 30

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Plein air is French for "open air," used to describe outdoor painting, a practice made popular by the Impressionists. Through insightful demonstrations and hands-on practice you will learn many useful techniques for painting en plein air, from equipment use and preparation to conceptualization, drawing, and painting. Fee: $180 members; $215 non-members. Some painting experience is suggested.

SCIENTIFIC ILLUSTRATION I

Dates: Tuesday, August 9 and Wednesday, August 10

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Bruce Wilson

This class is a basic introduction to Scientific Illustration in pen and ink. Students will go through the process of preparing a plate from initial drawing through composition and the application of the ink to the film surface. Several other traditional mediums will also be demonstrated such as carbon dust and step-by-step walk through of a project done for a botanist.

Fee: $160 members; $190 non-members. Some drawing skills and some pen and ink experience recommended.

LANDSCAPES IN PASTEL

Dates: Thursday, August 11 through Saturday, August 13

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Jan Prisco

Pastels provide a natural medium for plein air painting due to their immediacy and their vibrancy of color. Classes will cover valuable pastel tools for success. Come and paint the Garden and the buildings of Filoli; it is a serene and beautiful setting for artists. Demonstrations and lots of individual attention will be given as you create a beautiful piece of artwork.

Fee: $265 members; $315 non-members. All levels of pastel painters and watercolor painters who wish to learn to apply pastel on top of their watercolor paintings are welcome.

NATURAL SKY PAINTING IN WATERCOLOR AND GOUACHE

Painting clouds, stormy skies, and sunsets.

Dates: Wednesday,

September 21 and

Thursday, September 22

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Instructor: MaryJo Koch

For this class we'll study the work of John Constable (1776-1837) and apply it to your own work. Constable once noted that the sky is the "chief organ of sentiment" in a painting, and indeed this is a very important observation. Obviously the sky above us provides the light that plays across the surface of the earth, and where there are clouds they screen, soften and diffuse that light. We'll learn how to render the ever-changing sky as Constable painted them by using very light preliminary pencil sketches then practicing different painting strategies and brushwork to create a unique sky painting of your own. Fee: $210 members; $250 non-members. Fee includes materials; bring your own if you have them. This class is well-suited for all levels of experience.

Cloudy Sky by MaryJo Koch

CALLIGRAPHY

Fraktur: Blackletter with Curves

Dates: Thursdays, September 29 through October 20

Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm

Instructor: Sara Loesch-Frank

Calligraphy is graceful, elegant, legible writing. Fraktur is a dramatic style of lettering with curved and angular elements combined. It is written with a broad edged pen and has a sumptuous elegance. Fraktur was designed between 1493–1519 when the German emperor Maximilian decided to establish a splendid library of printed books and directed that a new elegant typeface be created especially for this purpose. Calligrapher Leonhard Wagner designed this new typeface, which soon became known as Fraktur. Sara will take you on a journey of discovery as you watch, learn, and practice this beautiful form of lettering.

Fee for each workshop: $125 members; $150 non-members. All levels of experience welcome.

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP

Fabulous Fall Flowers

Dates: Friday, October 14 and Saturday, October 15

Time: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Guy Magallanes

Inspired by stunning fall colors of flowers and trees in the Garden, this class is ideal for the absolute beginner and those with some experience. Do you think watercolor is unforgiving and too hard to try? Explore the versatility of watercolor in this fun class. Through step-by-step instruction, discover how to work with watercolor, including making a wash, applying glazes and textures, mixing colors and more.

Fee: $180 members; $215 non-members. This class is perfect for students with little or no experience.
