

Writer and Grants Coordinator

Filoli is a 654-acre historic site of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, located on the San Francisco Bay Peninsula near Woodside, CA, and one of the finest remaining country estates of the early 20th century. As a team member here, you will be able to connect rich history with a vibrant future through beauty, nature and shared stories. You have the opportunity to preserve, build upon and share the wonder of this place.

In our daily interaction with guests, we envision a time when all people honor nature, value unique experiences and appreciate beauty in everyday life. You will also actively play a part in creating a vibrant future through our 2019-2023 Strategic Plan. Embedding the core principles of Diversity & Inclusivity, Sustainability and Organizational Excellence into each pillar of the plan, we are focusing on five main pillars of our organization: People & Culture, Fundraising & Financial Strength, Infrastructure Investments, Visibility & Branding and Engagement & Education. We welcome and appreciate your contributions to Filoli.

SUMMARY

The Writer and Grants Coordinator will primarily gather information in preparation for grant proposals and other institutional writing projects. The Coordinator reports to the Chief Development Officer (CDO) and will be responsible for interviewing department leaders, understanding future projects and documenting ideas that can be used for future grant proposals and organizational reports and communications. This position will also research, write and edit proposals, and complete reports and communications within project deadlines. Although this position will be part of the Development Department, the Coordinator's findings and skills will be utilized across the entire organization.

This is a full-time (30-40 hours per week, flexibly scheduled) position. Depending on candidate experience, the hourly range for this position is $32.00 to $36.00. This position can be up to 40% work from home (some on-site work necessary in order to coordinate with staff and understand projects). The schedule will be based on business needs and flexibility will be important.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

General Writing (30% of duties)
