ABOUT FILOLI

Filoli is a property of the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Designed and built between 1915-1917, during the Golden Age of the early 20th century, Filoli is the longest surviving country estate on the peninsula. Opened to the public in 1976, Filoli features a 54,000 square foot modified Georgian revival residence, a 16-acre English Renaissance style garden and over 600 acres of woodlands set against the dramatic backdrop of the Santa Cruz Mountains. The unique setting of Filoli is a wonderful venue for the arts and artists, providing inspiration and a variety of resources.
